

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Just because this program is a documentary, it does not rightfully make it a NEWS story as Sinclair contends. Sinclair's timing on airing this program is politically motivated. It seems to me that the large companies who control the airwaves are forcing opinionated political propropaganda on the public.

Thank you.